Correction

Through an oversight no acknowledgment was made in the paper by Dr. G. E. Harmon of the School of Medicine of Western Reserve University on "The Course of Mortality from Puerperal Septicemia for Certain States of the United States, 1900-1920," in the issue of March, 1924, for the preparation of the illustrations by the Department of Anatomy and for the use of its laboratory apparatus. The services which the Department of Anatomy is offering are of unusual value, and the Department of Hygiene accordingly desires to remedy its omission of acknowledgment as far as possible.
